

International Working Party on Labour Market Segmentation 2023 Conference

Adjusting to a world of instability : workers, firms and institutions

Paris, 14–16th September

Saturday September the 16th

9:30-11:00 Parallel paper sessions

Working time issues — Chair: Christine Erhel (Salle 17.1.08)

Bettina Stadler (University of Graz, Institute of Sociology)	Flexible work in space and time and class differences
François-Xavier Devetter (IRES, University of Lille, CLERSE), Julie Valentin (University of Paris 1, CES)	Why do cleaning workers stay in their jobs?

Living wages and social protection — Chair: Adam Mrozowicki (Salle 17.1.17)

Mathew Johnson (University of Manchester), Eva Herman (University of Manchester)	Developing living wage bundles in the care sector: Opportunities and challenges
David De Kort (Utrecht University), Sonja Bekker (Utrecht University)	A qualitative study on domestic workers' access to social protection in the Netherlands
Kirsten Sehnbruch (Institute at the London School of Economics and Political Science), Mauricio Apablaza (Universidad del Desarrollo)	Multidimensional Employment Deprivations and their implications for social policies in Europe

Ecological transition — Chair: Steffen Lehdorff (Salle 17.2.06)

Gerhard Bosch (University of Duisburg-Essen)	Employment policy for a just transition - The Example of Ger- many
Matthieu Hocquelet (CEREQ, Marseille), Nathalie Moncel (CEREQ, Marseille)	Adjusting to a greener world: radical changes or continuig adaptation for workers and firms in France?
Géraldine Rieucan (CRIISEA, University Picardie Jules Verne and CEET-Cnam)	"Reuse, repair and recycle activities: a way to value jobs and resources?"

11:00-11:30

Coffee break (amphithéâtre Prouvé, accès 11, rue Saint-Martin)

11:30-13:00 Roundtable

"Economic transformations and public policies" animated by Christine Erhel (CEET, Cnam, Lirsa)

Jill Rubery (University of Manchester)	Employment matters
Steffen Lehdorff (IAQ / University of Duisburg-Essen)	Socio-ecological transformation of industry: challenges for trade unions
Clément Carbonnier (Université Paris 8, LED)	Reducing Labor Costs as Employment Strategy, the Case of France

13:00-14:30

Lunch break (Salon d'honneur, accès 39, rue Conté)

14:30

Social event